Annmarie began her NHS career as a Staff Nurse in Trauma and Orthopaedics before gaining her Specialist Community Public Health Nurse – Health Visitor qualification. She spent the next 13 years as a Health Visitor, predominantly in areas of high deprivation and children’s safeguarding. Identifying a gap in accessible assess and treat provision for children and young people with minor illnesses and injuries, Annmarie set up and ran walk in clinics in a local Children’s Centre, picking up a BSc in autonomous nurse practice and independent practice and an MSc in advanced paediatric nursing and ambulatory paediatrics along the way. Moving into management, Annmarie returned to Public Health Nursing as Team Leader for School Nursing before taking on a more corporate role as Assistant Chief Nurse for Workforce Assurance, leading on nurse staffing and recruitment. She has also worked as Operational Matron for Children’s Services and more latterly as Head of Occupational Health. Annmarie joined 360 Assurance in February 2021, keen to use her wealth of knowledge and experience to support high quality patient care and improve staff well-being.
